Learning objectives

Background

- I know basic facts about South African history, especially about Apartheid and Nelson Mandela.
- I know some basic rules of rugby.

Preparation

- I can make assumptions about the content of a movie by looking at its poster.
- I understand the main content of the poem Invictus.

The movie

- I can interpret the character's behaviour in the movie.
- I understand the content of the movie.
- I understand the relationship of black and white South Africans.

After the movie

- I can imagine how a character feels in a chosen situation.
- I understand the social and political situation of South Africa during Mandela's presidency.

Background

Exercise 1

You already know a lot about Apartheid, Nelson Mandela and rugby. These are the main topics of the movie. Draw a mind map for each of these topics and expand it during our discussion.

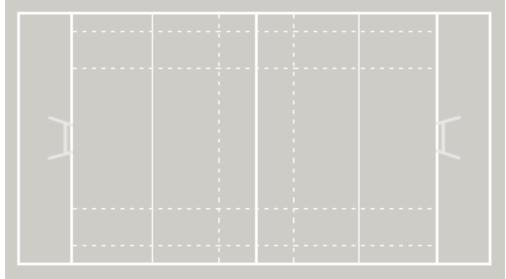

Apartheid

Nelson Mandela

Exercise 2

Here is a rugby field. Draw and write as many rules of rugby as you know. The following questions can help you:

- What is a player allowed to do with the ball?
- How can a team score points?
- When does the referee interrupt the game?

| Exercise 3  Explain the quote. What does it mean? Who do you think said this and why? Did you ever feel like something is impossible?  It always seems impossible until it's done. |   |       |

Preparation for the movie

Exercise 1

Write down your expectation when you hear the title of the movie and look at the movie poster on the front page.

Exercise 2

A poem by William Ernest Henley is a main topic of the movie. Let's have a look at it.

Invictus

Out of the night that covers me, Black as the pit from pole to pole, I thank whatever gods may be For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance I have not winced nor cried aloud. Under the bludgeonings of chance My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears Looms but the horror of the shade, And yet the menace of the years Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate, How charged with punishments the scroll, I am the master of my fate: I am the captain of my soul.

William Ernest Henley

Exercise 3

Here are some important characters of the movie. Your teacher introduces them to you. Write down three keywords for each of them.

Exercise 4

Choose one of the characters above:

Pay close attention to their role in the movie. At the end you'll write a diary entry for a day in their life. Keep your notes about what your character experiences and thinks?

The movie

Can you imagine a similar situation in our country or in your country of origin? Chapter 14-16 Why did Mandela learn the names of the Rugby players? What happens in this scene? Chapter 17 What do you think while watching the rugby team in the prison on Robben Island? Can you recognise, what the voice in the background is saying?

Chapter 18 & 19

Before the chapter: Explain All blacks as a term and maybe show the Haka

Look at the screen shot of the movie. How do you answer the question of Mandela:

"Do you still think I am wasting my time with the rugby?"

Chapter 20 - 26 The final (end after 2 hours)

Focus on the scenes outside of the stadium. What do they show us?

Which different characters can you recognise who are watching the game?
